

Statement of Faith

Historically

Church history begins with the believers in the Acts of the Apostles. Leading the way is a Jewish man named Paul, once a persecutor of Christians. Scripture records that Paul-formerly Saul-was transformed on the road to Damascus at the sound of Jesus' voice. His conversion stands as a testament to God's power to redeem and repurpose even the most unlikely individuals.

Scripture

Belief About Scripture

I believe that the Bible is the inspired and infallible Word of God. It is the ultimate authority for faith and conduct, offering wisdom, encouragement, and direction. The Bible inspires faith, instills hope, and serves as a compass for navigating life. It reminds us that God uses the available, just as He used Paul, to fulfill His divine purpose.

Divine Inspiration

I believe wholeheartedly that the Bible is inspired by God. While human interpretation may vary, the divine message remains true. Through my own experiences, I know that God uses those who are willing.

Biblical Accuracy

I believe that the writings of the early Christians provide authentic accounts of Jesus and His ministry. While the disciples' perspectives may differ, their testimonies collectively affirm the truth of Christ. I acknowledge that throughout history, a selective process determined which writings were included in Scripture.

Purpose of the Bible

I believe the Bible is a survival guide for daily living, offering instruction, correction, and hope.

Belief About God

I believe in one sovereign and eternal God, existing in three persons-Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. He is Creator, worthy of worship, and the source of love, grace, and truth.

God the Father

I know with certainty that God is alive and sovereign over my life. His footprints are evident throughout my past. I know Him as YHWH, the Lord of my life.

God the Son

I believe that Jesus Christ-Yeshua-is the Son of God, fully God and fully man. Born of the virgin Mary, He lived a sinless life and died as a sacrifice for our sins. His resurrection assures eternal life and restoration.

God the Holy Spirit

I believe in the presence and work of the Holy Spirit, who dwells in believers to guide, comfort, and empower them.

Eternality

I believe Yeshua is Messiah. Salvation is a gift offered to all through God's divinely orchestrated plan.

Omniscience, Omnipotence, and Omnipresence

I believe God is all-knowing, all-powerful (El Shaddai), and present everywhere.

Trinity

My personal experience affirms that God exists as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

Attributes of God

God is loving, compassionate, slow to anger, and always ready to receive the lost. Love is His very nature.

Creation

Genesis

I believe that in the beginning, God created the heavens and the earth. From nothing, He formed light, sky, land, water, and all living creatures. Humanity was created in His image-man first, then woman from man's rib. God completed creation in six days and rested on the Sabbath.

Original Sin

Adam and Eve, created by God and instructed to avoid the forbidden fruit, illustrate how disobedience leads to destruction. Their choice introduced sin into human nature.

Salvation

I believe that salvation is a gift from God, received through faith in Jesus Christ. It is not earned by works but given by grace, restoring our relationship with God.

Jesus Christ

Jesus is eternal, the Son of God through whom all things were made. His life, ministry, death, and resurrection form the foundation of the Christian faith.

Eternality of Christ

Jesus Christ is eternal, as affirmed in John 1:1-2. His divine nature has no beginning or end.

Incarnation

Jesus entered the world fully divine and fully human. John 1:14 declares, "The Word became flesh and made His dwelling among us."

Earthly Ministry

Jesus' earthly ministry demonstrated humility, servitude, and sacrificial love.

Death, Burial, and Resurrection

Jesus' death was the ultimate sacrifice for sin. His burial confirmed His death, and His resurrection validated His victory over sin and death. As Paul writes in 1 Corinthians 15:17, "If Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile; you are still in your sins."

The Church

The Universal Church

I believe in the universal Church, the body of Christ, made up of believers from all nations.

Women in Christ

I affirm the dignity, value, and calling of women in the Kingdom of God.

Role of the Church

The Church nurtures faith, provides community, and equips believers for service.

Role of the Christian

Christians are called to serve, give, live out their faith, and foster unity within the body of Christ.

Personal Faith Story

Role in Culture

I am a woman, defender of the faith, and nurse committed to offering healing in a therapeutic environment. My approach integrates Maslow's Hierarchy of Needs, guiding individuals toward stability, growth, and reintegration.

Ministry

After thirty years of promoting health, I now guide others toward eternal life. My ministry prepares hearts and minds for eternity with the Lord.

Women in Christ

I affirm the purpose and calling of every woman created in God's image.

Restoration

I believe in God's power to heal, renew, and transform lives.

Love and Grace

I am committed to living out Christ's love and extending His grace to all.

"And the God of all grace, who called you to his eternal glory in Christ, after you have suffered a little while, will himself restore you and make you strong, firm, and steadfast." - 1 Peter 5:10
